

2021-22 Independent SNAP Verification Worksheet

Your 2021-22 FAFSA has been selected by the Department of Education for a review process called verification. On your 2021-22 FAFSA, you indicated that you or a member of your household received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program sometime during 2019 or 2020. You must verify receipt of these benefits by completing this form and returning it to the Office of Student Financial Aid at Rush University.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2019 or 2020.

B. Receipt of SNAP Benefits

The student certifies that _____, a member of the student's household, received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2019 or 2020. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

The student's household includes:

- The student.
- The student's spouse, if the student is married.
- The student's or spouse's children if the student or spouse will provide more than half of the children's support from July 1, 2021, through June 30, 2022, even if the children do not live with the student.
- Other people if they now live with the student and the student or spouse provides more than half of the other people's support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2022.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2019 or 2020.

C. Certification and Signature

I certify that all of the information reported on this worksheet is complete and correct. The student must sign this worksheet. If married, the spouse's signature is optional.
