

2022-2023 Verification Worksheet (Dependent Student)
Receipt of SNAP Benefits

Your 2022-2023 FAFSA has been selected by the Department of Education for a review process called verification. On your 2022-2023 FAFSA, your parent indicated that a member of your parent's household received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program sometime during 2020. Your parent must verify receipt of these benefits by completing this form and returning it to the Office of Student Financial Aid at Rush University.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2020.

The parents certify that _____, a member of the parents' household, received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2020. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

The parents' household includes:

- The student.

Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
- Other people if they now live with the parents and the parents provide more than half of the other people's support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2023.
