

New federal legislation has just been signed into law. Some of these provisions are effective October 1, 2007. This legislation may have a dramatic impact on lender repayment incentives. For the time being, we have removed any references to what previous lender incentives were, as well as all information comparing costs between lenders, from our website.

Please contact our office if you have questions or concerns.

Phone: 312.942.6256

Email: financial_aid@rush.edu