Multidisciplinary Consultation Services Rush University Simulation Laboratory (RUSL)

General Tour and Discussion

(up to 20 participants)

- Layout & design
- Staffing, management, financial structure
- Usage

- Equipment
- Operations

Equipment Training

(One-on-One or Small Group Train-the-Trainer, up to 10 participants)

- Adult
- Emergency
- Baby
- Obstetric/Birthing
- Pediatric

- Laparoscopic
- Endoscopic/bronchoscopy
- Audiovisual
- Task Trainers

Sample Specialty Consultations

(Train-the-Trainer for medical students, nursing students, paramedical students, residents, nurse practitioners, faculty, etc.)

- Anesthesia
- Nurse Anesthesia
- Critical Care Nursing
- Pediatric Nurse Practitioner
- Pediatrics and Peds Critical Care
- General Surgery
- Emergency Medicine/Bioterrorism
- Internal Medicine

- OB/Gyne
- Pulmonary Medicine
- Palliative Care
- Military Training
- Additional specialized consultations available on request

Sample Specialized Topics

- Development of new curricula and incorporation into existing curricula
- Scenario development
- Debriefing methodology

- Equipment pro's & con's
- What to ask vendors
- Physical plant, operations, finance, & administration

FEES

BASE:

- $2,000 for a two hour minimum time slot
- Includes one simulation coordinator/technician and/or one clinician if required to cover topic requested.

ADDITIONAL:

- $500/hour for each additional practitioner required to cover topic requested
- Subsequent consultation proposals or visiting professor site-visits may be provided following initial consultation and needs analysis

7.25.2007

