What is the annual cost of the student health insurance?

2024-2025 approximate annual rates for Rush University student health insurance:

- Single - $6,280
- Each dependent - $6,280 additional

I am currently enrolled in student health insurance. Why has the cost increased from last year?

If you noticed a slight increase in your insurance premium for the 24-25 academic year, this adjustment is a proactive measure, a joint decision by AHP and your institution, in response to the rising cost of health care nationwide. Rather than compromising the quality of coverage, we have chosen to slightly raise the premium, ensuring that you can continue to enjoy the same high-quality coverage you are accustomed to.

When does the fall 2024 coverage start?

The fall 2024 coverage starts on Sept. 1.

I am currently enrolled in the health insurance and would like to continue to be enrolled. Do I need to re-enroll?

All students must complete the student health insurance waiver, or you will be automatically enrolled in fall 2024. You will automatically have your coverage rolled into spring and summer. If you are automatically enrolled this fall 2024, the next opportunity to submit a waiver will be during the spring 2025 open enrollment and waiver period.

If I submitted a waiver for fall 2023 and do not want the student health insurance plan for fall 2024, do I need to submit another waiver before the deadline, or does the fall waiver from the previous year carries over to the following terms until I graduate?

If you submitted a waiver during the fall 2023 term, the next time you will need to submit a waiver is during the fall 2024. You are required to submit a waiver every fall. If you are starting a new program this fall, you will also need to submit a waiver because this will be your first term of enrollment in the new program. Please submit your waiver during the fall 2024 open enrollment and waiver period, or you will be auto-enrolled in our plan and charged the premium.

I am graduating at the end of the summer 2024 term and will not be enrolled at RUSH next semester; why am I receiving this email?

We send emails to all currently active students. If you are not enrolled next term due to graduation, no action is required from you. And if you are currently enrolled in the student health insurance plan, you will be discontinued from coverage and will not be charged during the fall term. The summer coverage period ends Aug. 31, 2024.

I am graduating this summer 2024 and am currently enrolled in the student health insurance plan. Is there an extension option?

Eligible students can enroll in three or six months of Continuation Coverage as long they were insured for at least six (6) continuous months before coverage terminated under the Prior and/or Current Plan. The premium must be received prior to the existing coverage under the Rush University Student Health Insurance Plan terminates. In no event will the Covered Person be eligible for Continuation of Coverage if premium is received after the termination date of the Policy. There is no renewable option, and no refunds are available after you have selected the coverage. Premium will be paid directly to AHP.

Yes. There is an annual open enrollment and waiver period EVERY fall and all students will be automatically charged for the student health insurance plan during this fall 2024 term and every fall thereafter. The fee will remain until you submit a waiver and it verified and approved. If you are already covered under another health insurance plan, you must submit a waiver by Sept. 30, or the charge will remain on your account.

I am a new student beginning fall 2024 and am also a Rush employee. I already have insurance through Rush or through my spouse. Do I still need to submit a waiver?

Yes, all students, including Rush University Medical Center employees, are required to submit a waiver during the first term of enrollment and every fall thereafter. The University does not use the same system as the Rush Human Resource and Benefits department; therefore, we are not aware of your employment status or insurance standing at the medical center. You will be automatically charged for the student health insurance plan, and you MUST submit a waiver for the charge to be removed from your account.
