2026-2027 approximate annual rates for RUSH University student health insurance:

Each dependent - $6,989 additional

I am currently enrolled in the student health insurance. Why has the cost increased from previous years?

If you noticed a slight increase in your insurance premium for the 26-27 academic year, this adjustment is a proactive measure, a joint decision by AHP and your institution, in response to the rising cost of health care nationwide. Rather than compromising the quality of coverage, we have chosen to slightly raise the premium, ensuring that you can continue to enjoy the same high-quality coverage you are accustomed to.
