Re: STUDENTS: Tonight at 8 p.m. Let's Test Your Connection

To assist with our transition to remote instruction, we need to validate that all students are able to log in to Blackboard and access a Zoom session from their homes. This will help us confirm that students can learn remotely as well as load test our systems.

You currently are enrolled in a Blackboard shell for yearly Mandatory Training. Inside the shell there is a link to a Zoom online session.

Here's what you need to do tonight or tomorrow morning. This should take no more than 5 minutes of your time:

- Tonight: Between 8 and 8:30 p.m. Click on this link, log in to access the Zoom session and fill out a short survey.

OR

- Thursday: Between 7 and 7:30 a.m. Click on this link, log in to access the Zoom session and fill out a short survey.

Your participation will help us ensure you will have no interruption in your studies.
