

Onboarding Resources

Fall 2022

Welcome to Rush University!

We are please to have the opportunity to welcome you during you New Student Onboarding Experience and look forward to helping you settling into your role as a student at Rush University.

This Onboarding Resource Guide serves as a tool to allow you to acquaint yourself with University offices and student support services that will assist you during your time at Rush University. Many more resources—including guidelines for using Rush University technology, tip sheets for e-learning and more—can be found on the Onboarding Resources webpage. We strongly encourage you to review all the resources presented to make sure you have the best experience possible during your program. Please remember to complete the mandatory onboarding checklist by Monday, Aug. 15.

Always feel free to reach out and ask questions of any of these offices. If you aren't sure who to ask about a specific question, you can email Student_Affairs@rush.edu and we will direct you to the right place.

Student Accessibility Services

Rush University is committed to attracting and educating students who will help to make the population of health care professionals reflective of the national population, including individuals with disabilities.

Services

Our goal is to ensure equal access to facilities, programs and services at Rush for students with disabilities. The Office of Student Accessibility Services is your go-to resource for disability-related questions, providing an individualized, interactive experience to help meet your needs.

Students are encouraged to apply for accommodations promptly after being admitted but may apply at any time throughout their program. Students seeking accommodations are required to complete and submit the following:

- A request for accommodation online form
- Documentation stating a disability

“We’re here to help you fulfill your potential as a valued member of the Rush University community as a future health care leader.”

— Marie Lusk, Director
Office of Student Accessibility Services

Forms can be found online.

Student Health Insurance Plan

Rush University policy requires all students to have quality health insurance.

Beginning this year, Fall 2022, Rush Medical College will offer its students the opportunity to enroll in the student health insurance program OR provide proof of alternate insurance, should you choose not to enroll in our plan this Fall 2022. All medical students must complete the student health insurance waiver or enrollment process. Enrollment in the plan is required unless the student provides proof of coverage under an alternate plan.

The Student Health Insurance Plan meets or exceeds a Gold-medal level of coverage.

- Affordable, quality coverage compatible with the Affordable Care Act
- Academic Emergency Services (AES)*
- Covers you at school, at home and while traveling abroad
- Access to a broad Participating Provider Organization (PPO) Network from BCBSIL
- Access to multilingual 24/7 Nurseline
- Discounts on vision, fitness and much more

Rush Medical College students who wish to add dependents will need to contact the Office of Financial Affairs; call (312) 942-5257 or send an email to financial_affairs@rush.edu.

Enrollment in the plan for all College of Health Sciences, College of Nursing and Graduate College students is required unless the student provides proof of coverage under a comparable plan. Students in these three colleges may enroll online at rush.myahpcare.com. The set premium will be charged to your tuition bill. If you have comparable coverage through another insurance carrier, you can show proof of comparable coverage and attach a copy of your health insurance ID card online at rush.myahpcare.com.

Once enrolled in the Student Health Insurance Plan, coverage will be in effect until the student graduates or provides proof of other comparable coverage. Also, please note that no pro-rata refunds will be given once enrolled in the program.

If you do not waive coverage by the deadline, the premium will be charged to your Rush student account. No changes will be made to a student's Rush account after the waiver deadline.

Please note that dependents must be enrolled at the time the student enrolls and their coverage will coincide with that of the student. Dependent coverage will automatically be advanced from one coverage period to the next (the same as the student) until we are advised by the school to remove the dependent coverage or until the student is no longer covered under the plan. Dependents cannot purchase coverage unless the student has purchased coverage. To view rates and enrollment information, please go to rush.myahpcare.com.

Office of Student Diversity and Community Engagement

Our goal is to help develop health care professionals who are reflective of the communities, patients and region we serve, and who have gained an understanding of the many forms of diversity.

Student Affinity Groups

Our student affinity groups strive to create a welcoming and supportive environment for students from all backgrounds. In collaboration with our office, these groups host co-curricular activities that raise the level of awareness and appreciation for the many types of diversity at Rush.

The following is a list of our student affinity groups:

- American Medical Women's Association (AMWA)
- Asian Pacific American Medical Student Association (APAMSA)
- American Women Surgeons (AWS)
- Interprofessional Minority Student Association (IMSA)
- Latino Medical Student Association (LMSA)
- Student National Medical Association (SNMA)
- Rush Christian Fellowship (RCF)
- Rush Jewish Student Association (JSA)
- Rush Muslim Student Association (MSA)
- Rush South Asian Student Association (SASA)
- Rush Pride
- Rush University Diversity and Inclusion (RUDI)

Rush Community Service Initiatives Program

The mission of the Rush Community Service Initiatives Program, or RCSIP, is to provide community-based volunteer experiences for Rush students. These experiences enhance our students' ability to work in interprofessional teams, develop patient relationships, care for diverse populations and provide targeted services based on community need. RCSIP achieves its mission through the following:

- Aligning volunteer experiences with the findings from the Rush Community Health Needs Assessment
- Developing community programs that align with Rush's community implementation plan
- Providing appropriate support and training for student volunteers
- Accessing the outcomes of community programs
- Evaluating the effects of community service experiences on the personal learning and development of the students

The Office of Global Health

Rush University promotes involvement in voluntary global health initiatives that allow our students, residents, fellows, faculty and staff to bring their skills to populations in need and grow as health care professionals.

Service Learning Opportunities through the Office of Global Health

All students are eligible to participate in service learning opportunities through multiple avenues. Opportunities for the 2021-22 primary care and surgical service trips are available on the Global Health webpage.

Rush Students for Global Health

Rush Students for Global Health seek to introduce and cultivate an interest in global health and global health medicine within the Rush University community by promoting awareness of current issues in the practice of global health and medicine through lectures and forums and by advertising international medical experiences available to all Rush University students, residents and attending physicians.

M4 Elective

The purpose of this elective is to provide medical students with exposure to a global health curriculum and an opportunity for service-learning in a developing country. Curriculum is delivered primarily through self-study. It covers social determinants, ethics, and framework for addressing communicable and noncommunicable diseases from clinical, epidemiologic and public health perspectives. Options for clinical service-learning include all sites endorsed by the Office of Global Health and the AAMC VSLO program.

Rush Interdisciplinary Service Experience (RISE)

RISE provides a structured curriculum and scholarly focus to the community service component of the service experience. Each year there is a different project, which is conducted over spring break. All students are invited to apply. To get comprehensive details on this year's project and logistical details, visit the RISE page.

When something just doesn't seem right

Speak up!

Confidential, anonymous toll-free phone or web reporting available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Student Complaint Portal

Student complaints regarding services, academic programs, improper conduct or other challenges impacting the student's experience may be addressed informally such as following up with the specific staff or faculty affiliated with a particular issue.

In the case where a student feels their complaint would be best handled through formal procedures, Rush University offers a process for students to confidentially submit their formal complaints through the Student Complaint Portal.

Certain complaints have specific procedures, such as Title IX sexual misconduct or grade appeals. Under circumstances where a student files a formal complaint through the Student Complaint Portal requiring a specific procedure or contact person, the complaint will automatically be routed to the appropriate area for additional review and follow-up.

Rush Hotline

Rush is an organization with a strong commitment to compliance, ethics and respect in the clinical and academic settings.

Rush wants you to feel comfortable in approaching your supervisor/management or faculty/college administrator with questions and concerns including instances where you believe violations of standards, policies or inappropriate behavior may have occurred.

To encourage and support reporting of issues or concerns by our employees, students, patients, vendors and others, Rush has established phone and Internet-based reporting Hotline services.

Social Media

All are encouraged to engage with our social media channels and follow them for the latest Rush University news and announcements. Use social media to connect with the Rush University community and foster vibrant and thoughtful interaction.

Smart Social Media Use

While we welcome participation, be aware of best practices for smart social media use. Using social media appropriately will help protect your personal and professional reputation.

- Don't post any details that can be used to identify a patient or student.
- Don't seek out "friends" who are patients or respond to such requests.
- Don't disclose personal information (home address, home and cell phone numbers, email addresses, etc.).
- Don't use abusive language, ethnic and racial slurs or hateful speech.

In addition, no student may speak on behalf of Rush or use a Rush seal or logo in any form of social media. For more information, Rush University Medical Center's full social media policy can be found on Inside Rush.
